

You will know:

- you need to ask specific questions to be able to research a topic – What does the animal eat? Where does it live?
- you can research a topic about animals using Britannica Kids and National Geographic Kids.
- when searching the internet using Google I should put for kids or children in the search.
- how to create a google slide presentation, name it and save it in my google account.
- how to add images and text to a presentation.
- to talk clearly when presenting a presentation.

You will:

- use technology purposefully to create, organise, store, manipulate and retrieve digital content
- identify where to go for help and support when they have concerns about content or contact on the internet or other online technologies

Key Vocabulary
google – main provider of internet search and other services such as Google Slides and Gmail.	mind map – visual representation of idea, showing how these ideas are connected to one another.
presentation – a sequence of slides showing text and images accompanied by a spoken commentary.	safe search – tool provided by search engines to remove inappropriate content from results.

Research
 You will use –

- Britannica Kids
- National Geographic Kids
- Google Search

Creating a Presentation

- You will use Google slides
- You will need to name and save your presentation
- You will add pictures
- You will add text.

Multimedia Presentation
 You will present your presentation remembering to speak clearly.

Beginning your Research
 First, you need to think about what you want to research.
 Next, you need to think of specific questions you would like to find the answer to.
 Finally, make a mind map of your questions.

Searching the Internet
 When you search the internet at school you are kept safe because of the filters. Remember of you see something that upsets you, you must tell an adult straight away.

Tiger's Habitat

- Some tigers live on the grasslands.
- Some tigers live in the rainforest

Tiger Offspring

- Tiger cubs are born blind,
- A Tiger litter can be as many as seven but it is usually three.
- Tiger cubs learn to hunt by copying their mum

