School rules help to keep us safe. They mean everyone gets a turn. They teach you the consequences of misbehaving.

Coleman Primary School Rules

- Follow instructions
- Behave in a way that doesn't disturb others
- Keep hands, feet and objects to yourself
- Be polite. No swearing, teasing, bullying
- Look after ourselves, each other and our school

- We need to listen to other peoples opinions.
- We need to take turns.
- We need to value the views of others.

What could we have a vote about in class?
What game to play?
What story book to read?
Can you think of anything else?

In Year Two you will ....

- Learning class and school rules
- Make decisions
- Understand responsibilities
