

Nursery
Homework
Date: 19/01/24

Weekly theme: Martin Luther King

Weekly question: What would we find in a cold place (the Arctic)?

Phonics: This week we have been learning –

Alliteration is when different words start with the same sound.

Play 'I spy with my little eye something beginning with 'p'

Use the pictures below to help play the game.

This week's stories are:
The Polar Bear and the snow cloud
Bing Videos

This is our Talk4writing story for Spring 1

Watch Kipper's birthday-Oxford Reading tree.
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wROvLHZRHkU>

Writing task:

This week we have been talking about family celebrations e.g. weddings, birthdays and festivals. We have sent home a balloon shape so the children can draw themselves and their family at a celebration.

Please write on the balloon to tell us about a special family celebration. You can attach a photo for your child to share. Then bring the balloon back to Nursery. We will return the photo to you later in the week.

Physical task:

Maths task:

We have been learning about 3.

Show 3 fingers and the numeral 3

Ask your child to do different actions 3 times e.g. clapping, patting, clicking, nodding, stamping etc

Try Andy's Wild Workout! Andy has gone on an adventure to the Arctic and needs your help to complete these exercises. CBeebies | Andy's Wild Workouts | Arctic - YouTube You will have to move like an Arctic Fox, an Eider Duck, and a Polar Bear!

Next week:

We will be thinking about a hot place we can go to have an adventure.

Homework can be viewed on the school's website. You can click on the links to go straight to the stories above. To find our homework, click on 'Our Curriculum' then 'Nursery'.

polar bear

pencil

penguin

plate

pineapple

pear

