

Key Vocabulary

Human feature	Anything a human has built that is part of the landscape.
School	A place where people go to learn.
House	A house is a building or a shelter that is made by humans to live in.
Detached house	This style of house is not attached to other houses.
Semi-detached house	Two houses attached by a wall
Terraced house	Lots of houses joined together by their side walls.
Bungalow	A house with no upstairs.
Map	A drawing of all or part of the Earth's surface.

Human Features on Gwendolen Road:

Semi – detached houses

Terraced houses

Detached house

Bungalow

Coleman
Primary School

Map of Gwendolen Road:

Geography Skills

In Foundation 2 you were:

- Describing your immediate environment by using observation, discussion, stories, non-fiction texts and maps.

In Year 1 you will:

- Use simple fieldwork and observational skills to study the geography of our school and its grounds.
- Use basic geographical vocabulary to refer to human features of our school and its grounds and of the local area.