

Coleman Primary School
Year One
Spring Two

Knowledge Organiser – Computing Year One; Spring 2
We are Publishers: In this unit, you will create an eBook.
You will learn to add images and text.
You will also learn how to use images safely online.

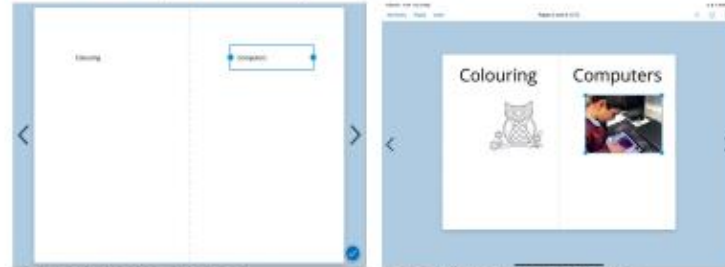

Key Vocabulary

Audio	Sound
Clip Art	Simple images used as illustrations
eBook	an electronic book
Font	the particular design of letters in text
Images	pictures, such as drawings or photographs
Safe Search	filter applied by Google or other search providers to remove sensitive or inappropriate results from searches

Unit outcomes

Below are some examples of the outcomes you could expect from this unit.

Session 1: Adding titles to their eBooks

Session 2: Adding images to their eBooks

Session 3: Recording commentaries

Session 4: Adding text and formatting

Sessions 5 and 6: Adding more images and finalising

Computing Skills learnt prior to this unit:

EYFS:

- Knows that information can be retrieved from computers.
- Completes a simple program on a computer.
- Uses ICT hardware to interact with age-appropriate computer software.
- Recognises that a range of technology is used in places such as homes and schools. Selects and uses technology for particular purposes

Computing Skills learnt in this unit:

Year One:

- use technology safely, learning to keep personal information private
- Identify where to go for help and support when they have concerns about content on the internet or other online technologies.
- Begin to recognise common uses of information technology beyond school.
- use technology to create, store and retrieve digital content.