Understanding the World

ELG: Past and Present

- Talk about the lives of the people around them and their roles in society.
- Know some similarities and differences between things in the past and now, drawing on their experiences and what has been read in class.

Skills learnt in this unit

Chronological Knowledge and understanding:

- Develop an awareness of the past in the world around them, including those from living memory.
- Begin to use a vocabulary of everyday historical terms.
- Begin to identify different ways to represent the past (e.g. photos, stories, adults talking about the past).
- Understand some ways we find out about the past - use as wide a range of sources as possible

KEY FACTS:

- Coleman Primary School moved to a bigger building in 1988 due to an increased number of children. It was originally on Coleman Road;
- In comparison to 1988, the school now has children from a diverse range of backgrounds and cultures with over 30 different home languages spoken around the school.
